VINTAGE TREASURE-HUNTING HEAVEN!

JUNK BONANZA VINTAGE MARKET RETURNS TO CANTERBURY PARK APRIL 19-21; APPEARANCES BY PROS FROM FLEA MARKET STYLE MAG; MISS MUSTARD SEED

MINNEAPOLIS, MN -- The Junk Bonanza Vintage Market returns to Canterbury Park APRIL 19-21, showcasing vintage finds, beautiful antiques and artisan-repurposed goods from among more than 150 of the nation's finest handpicked vintage purveyors.

Planning a vintage wedding? Decorating a new apartment or home? Junk Bonanza the source to tap for design inspiration and the goods to make it happen! Vintage finds, beautiful antiques and reimagined treasures including furniture, home and garden decor, jewelry and clothing are artfully staged as a series of boutique booths. Visitors will also find a selection of artisanal foodstuffs.

The Bonanza is known for quality vintage goods -- no reproductions are allowed. Items are 40 years old or older, or up-cycled using materials that age. Another event hallmark? It has become a favored gathering for gal pals, friends and families to meet and to shop -- and to enjoy sipping one of Canterbury's famous Bloody Mary cocktails while doing so!

Bonanza founder and Lakeville, MN, native Ki Nassauer is proud to bring a team from her Flea Market Style magazine to the Spring event. As editor-in-chief of the go-to publications for vintage lifestyle, Nassauer has assembled a group of pros whose work was featured in the latest issues of FMS and FMS Gardens to share design inspiration and tips on using vintage in home and garden decor during free sessions. The team:

Over

* Seattle interiors and photo stylist Janna Lufkin of photostyle.com will provide tips and secrets for shopping vintage like a pro, and how to use finds as functional home decor.

She will also re-create the beautiful brunch tabletop she styled for the Petals & Pancakes feature in the Spring issue of FMS. Attendees can register at each session to win shopping “toolkits” and $50 in Bonanza Bucks to spend on vendor merchandise. A contest on Lufkin’s website is giving away three one-hour shopping trips with her during the Bonanza so winners (and up to five of each of their friends) can experience how to shop like a pro! Winners will also receive $100 in Bonanza Bucks to spend on merchandise.

* Chicago stylist and dealer Melissa Parks, whose popular Instagram feed @megillicutti is a must-follow, will demystify the elements of creating beautiful vintage vignettes for your home’s personal and shared spaces. Attendees can enter to win vignette contents during each of her daily sessions.

* KSTP-TV Home and Garden expert Larry Pfarr will infuse new life into vintage items using potted plants and herbs. He will reprise his FMS Q and A on gardening and share ideas on using vintage in gardens and outdoor rooms. Attendees can register to win the potted creations from each session.

* Editor in Chief Nassauer will sign copies of the new Spring issues daily.

Marian Parsons, the founder of Miss Mustard Seed’s Milk Paint, will make a special guest appearance on opening day. She will commandeer the Bonanza’s @junkbonanza Instagram story feed to document her search for the perfect vintage furniture. She will transform it on site as attendees watch and register to win the completed piece.

The Bonanza is pleased to introduce the JB Garden Supply shop, featuring plants and herbs pre-potted in vintage containers to take home and begin enjoying immediately. Do-it-yourselfers will also find plenty of plants, herbs and one-of-a-kind vintage pieces to create their own Spring planters.

On Lucky Friday at the Bonanza, attendees can register to win one of hundreds of dollars in $25 coupons to be redeemed for merchandise in the vendor booths of their choosing.
