

JUNK BONANZA VINTAGE MARKET “OLD SCHOOL” ARTISANS ACTIVITIES SEPT 26-28, 2019

FREESTYLE SILHOUETTE PORTRAITURE

WHAT: Baltimore artisan Lauren Muney, one of 20 people in the world skilled in the master art of freehand-scissored silhouette portraiture, will demonstrate this classic 1700s-era art form. Register for a five-minute time slot and have your portrait done to take home, free of charge!

WHEN: Ongoing THU SEPT 26 & FRI SEPT 27

WHERE: Booth #237

LEARN MORE: silhouettesbyhand.com, @artisinal_selfie

HANDS-ON STRING ART CREATIONS

WHAT: On Lilac Lane artist Katharine Leary uses reclaimed wood pieces as bases for her updated take on the mid century craft of string art. St. Paul-based Leary will coach attendees who want to try it themselves and has kits and finished pieces for sale.

WHEN: Ongoing THU SEPT 26, FRI SEPT 27 & SAT SEPT 28

WHERE: Booth #228

LEARN MORE: @onlilaclanedesigns

TINTYPE PHOTOGRAPHY

WHAT: St. Paul visual artist Carla Rodriguez will provide ongoing demos of the Tintype process, a Civil War-era photoprocess that results in a unique, handmade image on metal. Her business name, Blkk Hand, derives from the stains silver nitrate left on the ungloved hands of early photographers. Paid portrait sittings available.

WHEN: Ongoing THU SEPT 26, FRI SEPT 27 & SAT SEPT 28

WHERE: Booth #216

LEARN MORE: blkkhand.com

CUSTOM RETRO CHAINSTITCH EMBROIDERY

WHAT: Bring items from home or those you purchase at the Bonanza for Minneapolis designer Benjamin Kelly of Dinosaur Hampton to custom embroider using a 1940s chainstitch machine. He will also have items for sale, including chainstitched patches and garments of his own design.

WHEN: Ongoing THU SEPT 26, FRI SEPT 27 & SAT SEPT 28

WHERE: Booth #52

LEARN MORE: dinosaurhampton.com

OVER